Combined Report of the District Chancellor and College Presidents

The San Mateo County Community College District’s International Education program – San Mateo Colleges of Silicon Valley – has been awarded the U.S. government’s highest honor for export success.
San Mateo County Community College District International Education Program Honored with Prestigious National Award from U.S. Department of Commerce

U.S. Secretary of Commerce Wilbur Ross announced that the San Mateo County Community College District’s International Education program – San Mateo Colleges of Silicon Valley – has been awarded the U.S. government’s highest honor for export success. Secretary Ross conferred on the program The President’s “E” Award, which was first established by President Kennedy in 1961, for contributions to American export growth. The SMCCCD program is the only educational institution among the 28 companies and businesses nationwide honored with this year’s prestigious award.

“It is an honor to receive The President’s “E” Award and be recognized for the tremendous work our team has done to grow and support our international educational program,” said SMCCCD Chancellor Michael Claire. “We believe that engaging international students to come and study at our colleges enriches the culture, education and diversity of our campuses and our community. This award is further validation of that belief.”

From 2015 to 2019, SMCCCD’s International Education Program served more than 6,500 students from 135 countries. In recent months, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the international program has pivoted its offerings to increase access for international students from the convenience of their home country. Through enhanced online classes, programs and support services, international students are able to enroll at the colleges of the SMCCCD – Cañada College, College of San Mateo and Skyline College – through the District’s Global Online Learning (GOL) initiative.

“We are thrilled that our Global Online Learning program has been recognized for its reach from Silicon Valley to parts across the globe, while emphasizing local connections and support for students,” said Dr. Jing Luan, Provost for International Education and leader of the District’s San Mateo Colleges of Silicon Valley. “As we diversify our delivery methods and bring our classrooms to students’ homes across the world, we expect greater opportunities for learning and success for all students.”

For more information on the international education program, visit smccd.edu/international.

Cañada College and Skyline College Vice Presidents Earn Top State Award

The Carter Doran Leadership Award is given annually to honor leaders in community college instruction.

California Community Colleges Chief Instructional Officers (CCCCIO) has bestowed its top award on two vice presidents from the San Mateo County Community College District. Dr. Tammy Robinson, Vice President of Instruction at Cañada College in Redwood City, and Dr. Jennifer Taylor-Mendoza, Vice President of Instruction at Skyline College in San Bruno, were honored with the statewide Carter Dolan Chief Instructional Officer Leadership Award at CCCCIO’s virtual conference last week.
The award recognizes an active instructional administrator who exemplifies leadership by showing qualities that Carter Doran embodied in his role as teacher/dean at Mt. San Antonio and Vice President of Instruction at Santa Ana and College of the Canyons.

"Dr. Robinson and Dr. Taylor-Mendoza have exemplified courageous leadership and embody the spirit of the Carter Doran Leadership award," said CCCCIO President Dr. Jennifer Vega La Serna. "They have led with heart, demonstrated creativity, shown sustained commitment to addressing instructional challenges, and together have made a profound impact on their colleges and the entire California Community College System."

Also honored with the award was Dr. Stacy Thompson, Vice President of Academic Services at Chabot College in Hayward. The three vice presidents worked together in 2020 to lead an examination of equity gaps and structural racism in the California community college system.

"Dr. Robinson and Dr. Taylor-Mendoza are truly exceptional leaders, with vision and strength that have not only facilitated transformation at Cañada College and Skyline College but have also sparked action across the state community college system," said San Mateo County Community College District Chancellor Michael Claire. "I am so proud of them and their colleagues statewide for their swift action on behalf of our students."

Dr. Robinson was cited for rallying her statewide chief instructional officer colleagues to action after the murder of George Floyd earlier this year. She helped to organize state instructional leaders’ Call to Action town halls, and she has been a strong voice for institutional change. She has spoken at a number of statewide events on campus climate, equity and workforce development.

Dr. Robinson, along with Dr. Thompson, created, planned, facilitated and presented at the inaugural African American Leadership Institute. She is past president of the Western Regional Council on Black American Affairs and currently serves as the organization’s Vice President of Development.

Dr. Taylor-Mendoza serves as the chief instructional officers’ representative to the State Chancellor’s Office Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) implementation workgroup. She is also the chair of the newly created CCCCIO DEI Steering Committee, bringing together seven chief instructional DEI officers to serve as strategy leads.

Dr. Taylor-Mendoza is also a co-author of the book "Minding the Obligation Gap in Community Colleges: Theory and Practice in Achieving Educational Equity." The book has been shared nationally and locally and has become a resource for colleges in addressing the equity gaps that have become even more evident during the current pandemic.

On October 3-4, 15 Cañada College Digital Art & Animation students (three teams of five students) participated in the 18th Annual 24-Hour Animation Contest, hosted by California State University, Long Beach. The students logged into a Zoom meeting at 3 p.m. on October 3 and received this year’s theme: COVID and “connection.” They then had 24 hours to brainstorm, develop, animate, color, edit, create, sound and upload their final 30-second film to YouTube. This year, more than 160 schools from all over the world participated and two of Cañada’s teams placed in the top 100 films, besting teams from prestigious animation schools such as Academy of Art University and UCLA. This was Digital Art & Animation student’s second year participating in the challenge and each team picked a creative name to use during the competition so that their school would not become a factor in judging. This is a voluntary activity and the Cañada students represented themselves incredibly well.

Cañada College alumna, Lea Fisher exclaims, “Even though this year was extra stressful with a power outage at my house and submitting our film with only ten minutes to spare, our team created something I’m super proud of. We all persevered and I am glad they convinced me to join in again on the chaos that is 24 Hours!” Cañada College Digital Art & Animation student, Brooke Muschott adds, “24 Hours was the ultimate crash course in animation. In a day, I got to learn about the entire animation pipeline, different roles in animation, and how to efficiently coordinate with a team. With only 24 hours to complete the entire project, there’s no time for regrets. Moving so fast gave us the opportunity to see what we did well and what we would do differently next time without being bogged down by perfection.” The students also expressed gratitude to Professors Paul Naas, Billy B, David Gainey and Dean Hyla Lacefield for supporting the teams over the 24 hours the students were working.

The film teams that created the captivating [REDACTED] includes: Ciarán Burke, Brooke Muschott, Sierra Sholes, Elizabeth Birdwell and Ivy Wooldridge. The film team that created the wonderful DINGaLINGaLONGs includes: Veronica Plante, Tabitha Liu, Heather Theroff, Lea Fisher and Damien Salablanca-Cervantes. The film team that created the fantastic Team Baby Mode includes: Ryan Michelsen, Magnus Marshall, Angel Madueno, Lauren Campbell and Stanley Huang.

Cañada Hosts High School & Community Partners Forum

For the second year, Cañada College hosted an information event for high school counselors, teachers, administrators and community partners to network with Cañada counselors, faculty and staff and learn more about new initiatives happening at Cañada College. Due to the pandemic, the event was held virtually with more than 60 community members in attendance via Zoom.

The event, held on November 6, opened with Welcoming Remarks, including an update from President Moore on how the College is supporting students during COVID-19. Vice President Pérez shared how the College has adopted an anti-racist framework to provide a more inclusive learning environment as well as shared updates on Guided Pathways. Vice President Robinson detailed how the College is navigating online learning through our Virtual Campus and learning platforms and Vice President Mendoza updated the group on campus Facilities and access for Spring 2021.

There were a number of informative presentations from members of the campus community, including a presentation on the cost of attending Cañada and scholarship opportunities from the Financial Aid and Promise Scholars Program teams, an overview of transfer programs, degrees and certificates including the debut of the College’s Program Mapper. The event also included a Career Education Showcase where several faculty members spotlighted their programs, including: Paralegal/Business, Interior Design and Digital Arts & Animation. Many students attend Cañada College for its Adult Education Programs and staff from the College for Working Adults (CWA) and English as a Second Language (ESL) presented the educational opportunities available. The highlight of the event was the student panel where Cañada College students, from a variety of programs, shared how they have been personally impacted by COVID-19 and provided insight on the campus resources available to support students so they can continue to study.

Feedback from our high school and community partners was positive and they shared that they enjoyed hearing stories directly from the students and loved learning more about all the incredible opportunities that San Mateo County youth have at Cañada College. The Forum was recorded and can be viewed here.

Last spring, when face-to-face learning was replaced with virtual instruction, CSM’s photography faculty and students were confronted with a daunting challenge. How would they complete a portfolio of 12 prints while working virtually without access to a darkroom or digital lab?

Photography Professor Richard Lohmann’s solution was to replace the class assignments with a new assignment: shoot weekly photos that document the students’ life during a pandemic. To replace the final portfolio, they used these images to create a 105-page, hardbound book titled Living under Covid-19: A Visual Diary.

Students used photography to document and describe their experiences coping with the sudden transition studying and working in a virtual world, social isolation, and an unknown future. At the end of the semester they collectively shot over 3,000 photographs.

In late October, each of Lohmann’s photography students enthusiastically received their printed book. It was the culmination of a project that Lohmann never imagined before the arrival of the coronavirus. His adaptability allowed his students to explore new creative avenues with remarkable dedication. This book is their personal memento of this significant period in history.

Highlights from Skyline College’s 3rd Annual UndocuWeek

From October 19-23, Skyline College held its 3rd annual UndocuWeek of Action, this time in a virtual setting. Without tasty snacks and therapy dogs – and with the stress of the November 3 election looming – there was a decidedly more serious tone to this year’s events.

New Student Club Formed: F.I.R.E. Significantly, Skyline College students met and established a new club, FIRE – Fighting for Immigrant Rights & Equity – and elected their first president, Oliver Eliastinoco. He explained:

“More than a club, our goal is to establish real tangible resources for students at Skyline, especially as we’ve moved into a virtual environment, and to see to actively reaching and encouraging undocumented students. FIRE will be inclusive of allies, undocumented and immigrant students, working to highlight the true diversity of students on our campus living with an undocumented status – these include Asian, Filipinx, African and Middle Eastern students as well as Latinx. These are voices not traditionally spotlighted, however these stories must be told.”
UndocuWeek Webinars – A Rich Source of Information. The California Community College (CCC) system and its partners sponsored daily webinars. Adjunct faculty member and Grove Scholars Counselor Trisha Tran shared her experience participating in a webinar for counselors.

“Things really resonated. The talk provided a gentle reminder for counselors to be active advocates for Dreamers, to be “hope drivers.” The webinar explained that the language to use with students is that their top career choice may not be available now, however, so much may change by the time they’re ready to join the workforce, it may be possible then. The webinar concluded by asking counselors and allies to decide: what actions will you take to make a difference?”

If you weren’t able to participate, all webinar recordings are available here.

Allies Came Together. At last year’s UndocuWeek, allies and students came together and built a “Wall of Support” in the Library that included personal immigration stories, students’ ICE protest posters and pictures of Skyline employees displaying “I am an unafraid educator” signs. This year, more than 25 employees posted their photo statements to create a virtual wall of support on the Dream Center’s Instagram page.

Change the Subject. If you missed the Library’s screening of Change the Subject, A Documentary about Labels, Libraries and Activism, featuring undocumented student activists at Dartmouth College, you can watch it here. The film is also available for you to show in class as long as you request permission from the filmmakers ahead of time: changethesubjectdoc@gmail.com. Stay tuned for information about future screenings by FIRE as well as the Library.

Here’s What Allies Can Do. If you’d like to become a more involved ally for our undocumented community, here are some ideas.

- Join us for the Dream Center Task Force’s next November meeting by emailing your interest to Jessica Silver-Sharp at silversharpj@smccd.edu.
- Contact Dream Center Coordinator Pamela Ortiz Cerda at Ortizcerdap@smccd.edu to subscribe to the Dream Center Newsletter of upcoming events and resources.
- Make a donation to the Skyline College Dream Center Fund, an emergency fund just for Skyline College students and Dream Center programs.
- Find an hour to watch the webinar that best pertains to your role on campus.
- Support students with direct referrals to the FIRE Club, to Personal Counseling, to Skyline’s free Immigration Legal Clinic, and of course, to the Dream Center.

Thank you for your continued support!

Equity Academy Brings together Community of Educators

On October 7-8th, the Equity Institute (EI) hosted the fifth equity academy, “Delivering Student-Ready STEM Education: Critical Competencies for Student Success.” This experience brought together teams representing 11 California Community Colleges including, Skyline College, College of San Mateo, West Valley College, College of Alameda, Laney College, Los Rios Community College District, Santa Ana College, Mt. San Antonio College, City College of San Francisco and Butte College. Each team represented a cross-section of STEM classified professionals, faculty members, and administrators who worked collaboratively through a sequence of four interactive sessions.

Chancellor Michael Claire and President Melissa Moreno welcomed participants and the experience commenced with opening keynote speaker, Sepehr Vakil, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Learning Sciences at Northwestern University. Dr. Vakil’s message addressed the ethical responsibility educators have to provide opportunities for students to learn and analyze the sociopolitical implications of science and technology. He also articulated the importance of cultivating students’ moral, ethical, and political identities in ways that help them navigate and transform their worlds. The audience engaged through Q&A and were particularly inspired by the notion of sparking excitement and increasing success in STEM by connecting content/material to issues that impact student’s lives and communities. Before releasing teams into their respective breakout sessions, Katrina Pantig presented the EI’s T3 Framework and guiding principles of being Student-Ready, Equity-Minded, and Transformative.

The first full day consisted of the opening keynote, session one, Teaching the Student and the Content (Student Engagement), and session two, Transformative STEM Pedagogies. The following day, participants attended session three, Cultural Competencies for Student Success, a facilitated conversation with equity-minded STEM practitioner, Safiyyah Forbes, session four, Becoming a Transformative STEM Educator (Practical Application), and the closing keynote address. The sessions were led by Skyline College facilitators who engaged participants in activities and discussions anchored by an electronic comprehensive peer-reviewed guidebook. The guidebook also provides participants with supplementary activities, resources, and reference material to utilize for continuing this work at their respective institutions.

The program culminated with a powerful keynote address by Roni Ellington, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Mathematics Education at Morgan State University. Dr. Ellington’s research includes analyzing the socio-cultural factors that impact student’s success in math and STEM disciplines and developing Transformative Frameworks for STEM education applicable to all STEM disciplines. Her message focused on how educators can be agents of transformation and critical partners in developing students. She challenged the common notion that we need new strategies and shifted the focus to the deep work of critical self-reflection which is the on-going cyclical work necessary to embody our desired goals around equity and social justice.

Eugene Mahmoud, Physics and Engineering faculty at Mt. San Antonio shared, “The academy was a good opportunity to reflect with my colleagues on the work that we do with our student population and as educators. I left with a heightened awareness of how my students’ context informs their ability to access course content, and how their learning experience must address their desire for higher education, career, and the social good.”

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION NO. 20-17 FIXING THE EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTION UNDER SECTION 22895 OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES’ MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL CARE ACT

In June 2015, the Board adopted resolutions to inform CalPERS of the retiree health benefits that are to be provided to the District’s employees pursuant to the District’s collective bargaining agreements. CalPERS generally refers to the amount of benefits provided by the District as the “Employer Contribution.” The non-represented employees are eligible for the same retiree health benefits as CSEA. As a result of the adoption of these resolutions, the District now must inform CalPERS, on an annual basis, about any changes to the retiree benefits offered by the District that are calculated based on the District’s medical cap for a single active employee or the lowest cost plan available. The adoption of a resolution is not required for employees who are eligible at time of retirement for medical benefits that are either the choice of any medical plan available or the equivalent to the current cost of the Kaiser plan, also known as “Kaiser Cap”. Furthermore, an adoption of a resolution is not required for retiree groups that do not experience a change in the employer contribution amounts. As described below, some of the District’s retirees, enrolled in a non-Medicare (basic enrollment) plan, are entitled to be paid an amount equivalent to the District’s medical cap for a single active employee. Some of the District’s retirees, whom are Medicare eligible and are currently enrolled in a Medicare plan, are to be paid an amount equivalent to the lowest cost available plan offered by the District. Resolutions inform CalPERS about what the District’s medical cap for a single active employee amount is and which lowest cost plan is available.

The following is a brief description of the resolution for the AFSCME retiree group eligible to receive a contribution equivalent to either the District’s medical cap for single active employees or the lowest cost plan available depending on whether or not the retiree is Medicare eligible:

- Resolution 20-17: AFSCME Group – “fixes” the employer contribution for retirees with twenty years of service, who were hired on or after July 1, 1992, to the District’s medical cap for a single active (AFSCME) employee amount of $764.00 per month. Effective January 1, 2021, the single active cap will increase by $50.00 per month to $814.00 per month. Once Medicare eligible, the District will pay for the lowest cost Medicare (supplemental) plan available which currently is United Healthcare. Effective January 1, 2021, United Healthcare will remain the lowest cost plan available. The first whereas clause in this resolution refers to “Vesting C” which is how CalPERS defines this retiree group in their system.

The changes to the employer contributions will be activated by CalPERS effective January 1, 2021, pursuant to receipt of these resolutions and CalPERS implementation procedures.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board adopt Resolution No. 20-17, to fix the employer contributions.

BOARD REPORT NO. 20-11-1CA

TO: Members of the Board of Trustees
FROM: Michael Claire, Chancellor
PREPARED BY: Dr. Aaron McVean, Vice Chancellor, Educational Services and Planning, 358-6803

CURRICULAR ADDITIONS, DELETIONS AND MODIFICATIONS
CAÑADA COLLEGE, COLLEGE OF SAN MATEO, AND SKYLINE COLLEGE

The addition of one course and one department to and the deletion of three (3) courses and one (1) department from the College catalogs are proposed by Cañada College, College of San Mateo, and Skyline College at this time. Additionally, 194 courses are proposed to be offered in the distance education mode. Furthermore, 206 courses were modified.

Each of the proposed courses and programs has been reviewed by the appropriate Division Dean and approved by the College Curriculum or Instruction Committee, acting on behalf of the local Academic Senate. In addition, the Academic Senate Presidents provide oversight with respect to the necessary role of the local Senates in the review and approval process. The rigor of the approval process assures that each new course has substance and integrity in relation to its discipline and that it fills a clear student need not being served by existing course offerings.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board approve the attached curricular changes for the Cañada College, College of San Mateo, and Skyline College catalogs.

FUNERAL SERVICE EDUCATION (FSE.)

For nearly two years now, our Director of Workforce Development and our Biology discipline faculty have been researching and collecting data on the feasibility of a Funeral Science program that prepares students to be Funeral Service Education experts. Currently, there is no such program in the region and only two in the state of California – in Los Angeles and Sacramento. We see this as a real workforce development opportunity for Cañada College students, faculty, and the community. Additionally, the workforce demands and Labor Market data suggest an increasing need for Funeral Service Education professionals in the immediate region.

The Dean of Science and Technology, the Office of Instruction, the President’s Cabinet, and the Instructional Planning Council have consulted about the viability of such a program at Cañada College. Additionally, the college has stable funding to support the development of this program and the necessary curriculum development through Strong Workforce funding. Julian Branch, the Director of Workforce Development with the support of the tri-chair committee, has allocated annual funding for the program.

The new department code (FSE.) will be used to create courses that will be part of an Associate of Science Degree in Funeral Service Education.

UPDATE ON WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT TASKFORCE RESPONSE TO COVID-19 IMPACT

In response to the tremendous impact of the COVID-19 pandemic across our community, the District created the Workforce Development Taskforce to serve those in need during this complex time. The goal of the Workforce Development Taskforce is to act as a vital resource in the response to the ever-changing workforce and economic development needs in San Mateo County as a result of the pandemic. An emphasis is being made to serve displaced workers through the delivery of short- and long-term training and development opportunities along with customized services and supports that lead to a prepared workforce for the future.

A summary of the Taskforce’s work is attached to this report.
The COVID-19 pandemic has led to unprecedented levels of temporary and permanent job loss and displacement. Workforce sectors most impacted by the pandemic include the Leisure, Hospitality, Retail, and Healthcare industries. Black and Latinx women have been most impacted as a result of the pandemic. Early data showed Black women made up 23% of those impacted by job loss across the state and 12% were Black men. Additionally, 22% of Latinx women and 12% of Latinx men have suffered job loss. Further, 14% of Asian/Pacific Islander women lost jobs and 18% were Asian/Pacific Islander men. Lastly, 10% of white women and 7% of white men experienced some form of job loss.

The goal of the Workforce Development Taskforce is to act as a vital resource in the response to the ever-changing workforce and economic development needs in San Mateo County as a result of the pandemic. An emphasis is being made to serve displaced workers through the delivery of short- and long-term training and development opportunities along with customized services and supports that lead to a prepared workforce for the future. Intentional alignment of the work of the Taskforce directly supports San Mateo County’s Strategic Goal to support initiatives designed to return economic and business activities to a healthy state and develop new business and employment initiatives.

To achieve its goals, the Taskforce leveraged the combined expertise of its members to rapidly create an unprecedented level of internal collaboration between the workforce leaders and select academic leaders at the three colleges, the Bay Area Entrepreneur Center (BAEC), and Community, Continuing and Corporate Education (CCCE). This cross-campus, district-wide partnership brought together workforce, academic, small business, and CCCE to partner in ways that forge new solutions and approaches to the workforce problems impacting the entire county. Taskforce members worked hand in hand to provide solutions and impact through workforce development, small business and entrepreneurship, and corporate education.

The Taskforce has led thoughtful engagement and collaboration with key partners across San Mateo County, including: San Mateo County Economic Development Association (SAMCEDA), Job Train, NOVA, Local Chamber of Commerce, San Mateo County Office of Education, and Key Industry Leads. The Taskforce remains committed to long-term engagement with community stakeholders and partners through collaborative approaches.

CREATION OF A WORKFORCE PORTAL

PORTAL TO OPPORTUNITY

Prior to COVID-19, the colleges and CCCE provided their respective communities with access to workforce development and training opportunities through separate, institution-specific websites focused on targeted geographic areas.

It quickly became clear to the newly constituted Workforce Development Taskforce that a cohesive and coherent workforce response to COVID-19 necessitated a singular district-wide portal that encompassed the entirety of the Taskforce’s strategies, including a county-wide marketing campaign to build local awareness. To that end, the Taskforce rapidly prototyped and deployed a Workforce Connections portal providing county-wide job seekers, small businesses and entrepreneurs, and employers with access to a wealth of resources.

The new workforce development and training portal, found at smccd.edu/workforce, offers critical job training and small business resources on one convenient website, encompassing the following areas of access to opportunity and support.
ASSISTANCE FOR JOB SEEKERS AND SHORT-TERM TRAINING

Through the workforce portal, job seekers and community members can find easy access to training programs for a number of careers that promise strong growth and stability in the Bay Area.

Programs include but are not limited to: UX design, human resources, child development, cyber-security, optician, facilities maintenance, cloud computing, project management, digital marketing, and sales operations. Visitors to the site can choose full and short-term academic and workforce programs and can access career readiness preparation and coaching to prepare, apply, and interview for open positions.

The Taskforce continues to monitor employment trends and in-demand skills with the intent to design and implement relevant programming through the duration of the COVID-19 pandemic.

SMALL BUSINESSES RECOVERY

Small businesses and entrepreneurs are especially impacted in this pandemic. The portal offers tools to help small businesses and entrepreneurs adapt and stay afloat during these critical times. The Small Business Recovery & Assistance Program as part of the Bay Area Entrepreneur Center offers virtual services including business management guidance, technical and targeted business assistance, networking, one-on-one consulting, coaching, and workshops.

HELP WITH CORPORATE TRAINING

This section of the website connects companies to training programs for existing employees. Local employers can take advantage of numerous expert-led online workshop series including Working & Connecting Remotely, Leading & Managing Remotely, Business Writing, Work from Home Technology, Cross-Cultural Competency, and Diversity & Inclusion. Other services include executive coaching and workshops as well as customized training for leaders and teams in any type of organization.

KEY CONTACTS FOR SUPPORT

The workforce website also provides easily accessible contact information for all the workforce, small business, and training leaders on the Taskforce, information previously distributed across multiple websites. This collaborative approach exemplified on the website demonstrates the district’s response to the workforce crisis caused by COVID-19.
COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND ENGAGEMENT

A comprehensive marketing and communication postcard campaign was led by Skyline College’s Strategic Partnerships and Workforce Development Division and informed by Taskforce engagement, designed to engage the San Mateo County Community in how the three colleges and the district have partnered to provide training, small business recovery support, and job placement services during the pandemic.

The campaign reached across 280,250 households - and has led to the direct engagement of over 500 community members for a variety of services.

The campaign focused on four critical response strategies that were developed by the taskforce to support communities and industries most in need as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.
TASKFORCE RESPONSE STRATEGIES

1 RESPONSE STRATEGY ONE: ADDRESSING JOB LOSS

The first response strategy focuses on job loss. In response to the overwhelming impact that COVID-19 has had on our local community, including widespread job displacement and elimination, the SMCCCD developed a variety of low-cost short-term training programs designed to support workers seeking to re-enter the workforce, upskill to obtain a new position, or earn a college issued certificate or degree.

Short-term training programs can be completed in as little as one to six months. Participants have the potential to earn a Certificate of Completion, Skills Certificate, or Certificate of Specialization; which include both for-credit and not-for-credit options. Programs are designed to provide the in-demand skills that employers are looking for, and all are offered in an online accessible format. Programs are also developed with a lens on emergent industry needs, a pulse on economic impacts and trends, and community interest.

To date, the Taskforce has served over 500 individuals through information and program engagement in the community and launched 14 programs. Current short-term training programs are detailed in Appendix A and include:

RESPONSE STRATEGY TWO: SMALL BUSINESS RECOVERY

The second response strategy includes small business recovery and the direct support to small businesses and entrepreneurs.

The Bay Area Entrepreneur Center (BAEC) at Skyline College offers tools and resources to help small businesses and entrepreneurs adapt and stay afloat during these critical times. In direct response to the economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, the BAEC was awarded a $100,000 grant from the San Bruno Community Foundation and $25,000 from YouTube to support business development. During the summer of 2020, the BAEC launched the Small Business Recovery & Assistance Program (SBRAP) which offers virtual services including business management guidance, technical and targeted business assistance, one-on-one consulting, job shadow opportunities, coaching and workshops. The SBRAP has held over 75 virtual workshops and tutorials, convened over 150 hours of direct advising and coaching to businesses, and reached hundreds of business owners and entrepreneurs in need of assistance through extensive outreach and technical assistance.

The BAEC, with funding from the SBCF, is now offering micro grants of $3,000 each to further assist small businesses in their recovery. The Micro Grant program will provide businesses with “seed” money to make changes to their business or adapt services to meet new consumer preferences and safety requirements of their business. The BAEC recently convened the Small Business Symposium: Lessons in Adapting, a three-day virtual conference tailored to small business needs. The symposium featured interviews from small business owners, student roundtable sessions and tutorials and workshops with tips and insights on how businesses can best weather this storm.

In addition to its collaboration as part of the Taskforce, the BAEC has fostered partnerships across San Mateo County to develop a robust program to support small businesses during this time. Partnerships include: the City of San Bruno, the Renaissance Center, the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club of San Bruno and San Mateo County Economic Development Association.

Materials and program information are made available in multiple languages and offer a variety of approaches to meet the diverse and varied needs of our business communities.

RESPONSE STRATEGY THREE: THE CHANGING WORKPLACE

The third response strategy includes the changing workplace and the district's programs, services and customized training options available to support businesses as they face increased disruptions across workforce entities.

SHIFT TO A REMOTE WORKFORCE

The pandemic almost immediately began to pose new and difficult challenges for leaders and teams, highlighting the uncertainties and lack of protocols around how to work and lead effectively in a remote work environment, including how to foster engagement, how to support productivity and maintain accountability, how to handle conflict, how to maintain diversity and inclusion best practices, and much more.
SUPPORT FOR REMOTE SMCCCD STAFF

In collaboration with Human Resources, CCCE designed and launched an online 2020-2021 Professional Development Academy in August 2020 for remote SMCCCD employees utilizing a newly-built training platform (pda.training) that provides access to online workshop series, resources, and registration forms.

Workshops are offered by series and grouped by categories such as Working & Connecting Remotely, Work from Home Technology, Health & Mindfulness, Remote Leadership, and Leadership Development. Employees have the opportunity to receive digital certificates for completing a majority of each series. Participation in the online workshops has been high with an average registration of 35 per workshop. Participants have expressed strong satisfaction with the workshops, as seen in these comments from recent attendees:

Knowing each other’s strengths and weaknesses helps make delegating easier while continuously checking in with each and building team work. It also helped me understand how to build relationships and morale among each other.

I was able to acquire some best practices and receive reinforcement on things I am already doing - my biggest takeaway was to allow myself time to self-care and the need and importance of a communication plan.

SUPPORT FOR REMOTE EXTERNAL WORKERS, LEADERS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Similar to the support provided to SMCCCD employees, CCCE designed an Online Professional Development Academy for external-facing remote individuals and organizations in the community using a newly-designed training platform built by CCCE (ccce.training).

The online academy provides affordable access for remote workers and leaders, displaced workers, and organizations to high-quality online training that addresses the upskilling needs of the remote workforce. The site provides individuals options to register for free or low-cost workshops while potentially earning a digital certificate for participation in a series. Organizations have the option of sending employees to participate in the workshops or to request workshops or entire series to be customized and delivered directly to their employees.

Workshops are offered by series and grouped by categories such as: Working & Connecting Remotely, Leading and Managing Remotely, Business Writing, Work from Home Technology, Global Diversity & Cross-Cultural Competency, and Diversity & Inclusion. The site also provides access to executive coaching and related workshops for individuals and/or organizations. To date, the site has received 90 registrants for the online workshops, and three organizations have requested portions of the online training to be offered directly to their remote staff.

SUPPORT FOR REMOTE EDUCATORS AND SCHOOLS

Responding to an enormous need in the county as teachers seek to improve online teaching, SMCCCD’s CCCE division partnered with the San Mateo County Office of Education (SMCOE) in summer 2020 to launch a joint series of training programs for teachers across the county to help them deepen their skills in online instruction. More than 350 TK-12 teachers signed up for the program, which was offered in three two-week sessions from June to August and covered topics such as Effective Differentiated Instruction, Key Tools for Engagement, Formative and Summative Assessment, and Platforms for Communication and Organization.
When COVID-19 led to a move from in-person teaching and learning to distance learning in March 2020, the San Mateo County Office of Education wanted to respond with timely staff development for the teachers in our 23 member districts. However, we knew we would need to partner for training at that scale. Jonathan Bissell, Executive Director of CCCE at San Mateo Community College District, proved to be a collaborative and agile partner. Jonathan teamed with our staff to create a comprehensive Distance Learning series delivered to three cohorts of San Mateo County district staff over six weeks. He worked with us to recruit trainers, hired instructional designers to inform course design, and served as a thought-partner every step of the way. We trained over 350 teachers in this summer series, and continue to offer the courses garnering high satisfaction ratings from teachers in virtual classrooms daily with students.

— Jennifer Frentress, Associate Superintendent, Innovation and Research

Beyond the summer series, the District partnered with SMCOE in August 2020 to provide customized distance learning professional development training for teachers in several districts, with a focus on Differentiated Instruction, Tools for Engagement, and Formative and Summative Assessment. The partnership continued into the fall with several joint online professional development series for teachers, including a September series on Key Tools for Engagement, and an October 2020 series on Formative and Summative Assessment.

The SMCCCD and SMCOE are currently working on development of a new series of courses designed to promote greater equity in mathematics education (SMCCCD press release). The courses are offered in partnership with Education Trust-West and are designed to provide educators with an integrated approach to mathematics that centers on Black, Latinx, and multilingual students in grades 6-8, addresses barriers to math equity, and aligns instruction to grade-level priority standards. The project is expected to serve as a pilot for similar efforts to increase equity in STEM and other subjects. More information about the project can be found on the micro-course site.

RESPONSE STRATEGY FOUR: CAREER READINESS AND JOB PLACEMENT

The final response strategy focuses on career readiness and job placement. Now, more than ever, community members need clear ways to connect with employers and to companies that are offering livable wage and safe jobs. Community members can request and access direct support and services across the three colleges for needs that pertain to preparing and interviewing for open jobs and paid internships.

Over the summer, Skyline College, College of San Mateo and Cañada College worked to host “Connect to Careers,” a virtual employer panel event to highlight local career and internship opportunities to nearly 200 students, alumni and community members. The event featured representatives from Tesla, Amazon and BPM, who shared details about the impact that COVID-19 has had on daily operations and hiring, while also highlighting benefits about working for each organization and providing details about open positions and how to apply. Prior to the launch of this event, the colleges collaborated on a series of workshops focused on resume development, best practices for using LinkedIn and interview skills.

In addition to collaborative efforts between SMCCCD colleges, the following efforts are taking place to support career readiness and job placement efforts at each college:

Skyline College’s Career Readiness and Job Placement team hosts bimonthly virtual “Get Work” Wednesday events where they bring together four employers by Meta Major to share with students and the community, companies that are hiring and how students can best connect and apply to open jobs. Career Readiness Preparation Workshops are held prior to support resume design and development, LinkedIn Profile Creation, networking strategies and interview preparation. Since the “shelter in place” Skyline College hosted nine “Get Work” Wednesday Virtual Sessions for students and community members with 36 major employers showcasing current job opportunities by meta major along with 28 career readiness webinars to assist with job search, resume design and development, interview prep and building a network with LinkedIn, directly serving and supporting over 500 students and community members. Job Placement Coordinators also provide direct one-on-one support to students and community members who are looking to enter the workforce.

College of San Mateo recently implemented a new interactive job search platform, Jobspeaker, to connect local and regional employers with CSM students and alumni for career and internship opportunities. In addition, CSM’s Workforce Hub offers one-on-one support for resumes, cover letters, LinkedIn profiles and interview preparation for current students and alumni. Looking forward, the College is preparing to host a series of monthly career exploration and job search workshops, in partnership with local employers and CSM alumni, to its newly formed Academic and Career Communities beginning spring 2021.

Cañada College supports students as they start their careers, move up in their current organization or transfer to another opportunity. The primary goal of Career Services is to assist students in developing and carrying out both short-and long-term employment and career goals. Services provided include resume creation, cover letter help, workshops, self-assessments, advising, and job search.

THE PATH FORWARD

COLLABORATIVE APPROACH

Over the past six months, the Workforce Development Taskforce has united to bring together key leaders across all three colleges and the District in the areas of workforce development, small business and entrepreneurship, and corporate education to develop and align a swift response to support our community during the incredibly complex times of the COVID-19 pandemic, serving as a vital resource in the response to the ever-changing workforce and economic development needs in San Mateo County as a result of the COVID-19 Pandemic. As seen throughout this report, Taskforce members have worked closely and will continue to examine partnership opportunities to provide solutions and greater impact through workforce development, small business and entrepreneurship, and corporate education - driving strategies to ameliorate job loss, support small business recovery, address the needs of the changing workforce, and support career readiness and job placement.

DATA INFORMED DECISIONS, COLLABORATION, AND CONTINUED EFFORTS

Demographic data and data trends will be collected and examined to determine collective impact and areas in need of support. The Taskforce is collaborating with county officials to access county-specific workforce data that can be leveraged to inform new and ongoing efforts. Further, the Taskforce will continue to use labor market information and key economic trends to inform future program development along with short-term training program outcomes. Critical workforce preparation strategies and partnership development collaborations will continue to be fostered across the three colleges, BAEC, and CCCE. And community and county stakeholder relationships will continue to be nurtured and facilitated to meet the needs of residents, businesses, entrepreneurs, organizations and agencies throughout San Mateo County.
