Student Interest in DE - Fall 2013

1 of 4

Introduction and Overview

This survey is being conducted to gather information about the interest in distance education courses among Cañada students. Distance education is growing at a significant rate state-wide, with more than 27% of all community college students taking at least one distance education course each year.

In order for us to offer the courses that you would like to take, we need to ask you a few questions.
