Justification For Board Report OR Curriculum Inventory update:	1. For NEW Courses: Provide a brief justification statement describing the need for the course, its place in the curriculum, and pertinent information such as the role of advisory committees. New courses require approval of the SMCCCD Board of Trustees. The justification statement will be included on the annual Curricular Board report. Use complete sentences and present tense. 2. For all types of Course MODIFICATIONS (modifications, banking, deletions and reactivations): Provide a brief justification statement describing the need for the change. The justification statement will be used for course updates in the State Curriculum Inventory as necessary. Use complete sentences and present tense. In response to community needs regarding young children who are dual language learners, the Education and Human Development department is partnering with the San Mateo County of Education to create a Multilingual Learner Teacher Certificate of Achievement (MLTC). This certificate equips early educators with the skills and knowledge specific to supporting dual/multilingual learners during the early childhood years. The proposed course, ECE 280, is one of the required courses for the MLTC.

Representative Methods of Evaluation

This section defines the ways students will demonstrate that they have met the student learning outcomes.

Student grades will be based on multiple measures of student performance. Instructors will develop appropriate classroom assessment methods and procedures for calculating student grades, including the final semester grade. The following list displays typical assessment methods appropriate for this course. The actual assessment methods used in a particular classroom and section will be listed in the instructor's syllabus.

Methods must effectively evaluate critical thinking. Credit courses must include written communication, problem solving, and/or skills demonstrations.

Multiple measures may include, but are not limited to, the following:

Methods

- Class Participation
- Class Performance
- Class Work
- Papers

How are you ensuring that students with disabilities can access your course in accordance with Section 508?	This course will use a universal design approach in the creation and design of its online content, and address Section 508 requirements as much as possible. For example, with screen-readers in mind, instructor will use sans serif fonts, utilize heading structure in course pages (Heading 1, heading 2, etc.), use chromatic color sparingly, and try to use highly contrasting colors. Additionally, when addressing course content, the instructor will do all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide videos that have closed captioning • Provide transcripts for all recorded lectures and videos • Provide alt tags for images • Use descriptive links for website addresses and links • Use true-bulleted lists (unordered or ordered) • Provide documents, assignments, and handouts in multiple formats (PDF, Word and accessible HTML web pages) with heading structure • Provide instructions on how to download any software for outside resources • Use the notes portion of PowerPoint to explain the images and content of the slide • Provide links to other on-campus resources such as the Counseling, Learning Center, and Library

Plan for Regular Effective Communication Contact Between Faculty and Student (Title 5, 55204). "Local policies should establish and monitor minimum standards of regular effective contact."

Announcements/Bulletin Boards - Weekly Announcements about changes to course assignments and due dates, additional relevant information and current events, extra credit opportunities, etc.
Discussion Boards - Weekly monitoring of students assigned discussions with regular feedback in gradebook and/or actual forums. "Raising My Hand" or "Cooler-Talk" forums for students to ask questions, interact with peers on various course related topics, and to get additional feedback from instructor are available throughout the semester.
Email Communication - The instructor is available for email communication throughout the week with a 24 hour response time to student emails (weekend and holiday exceptions).
Resource Links - Links will be provided to assist students with using relevant resources
Office hours - Weekly zoom synchronous, weekly on-campus office hours (TBD by instructor), and by appointment.
