

Levels of Connection

Bowling Green University, <http://www.bgsu.edu/offices/provost/Assessment/Connect.htm>

“Connecting” is the essence of creative problem solving, shown in synthesizing knowledge within and across courses, integrating theory and practice, linking academic and life experiences, and relating one’s self and culture to diverse cultures within the U.S. and globally. The quality of connections made in course assignments will be evaluated using the features defining the four levels shown below.

Level 1 Connection (Beginner)

- Describe similarities and differences in a collection or set of items
- Categorize items or observations into groups
- Recognize simple links among topics or concepts in a course
- Offer accurate definitions of terms and concepts
- Describe the setting (e.g., context, environment, culture, domain) in which connections are being made

Level 2 Connection (Novice)

- Organize groups of items into ordered collections and specify the organizing principle(s)
- Recognize links among topics and concepts presented in different courses
- Relate and use information from other courses or experiences in the current setting
- Formulate generalizations about collections or sets of items
- Distinguish concrete and abstract representations

- Apply frameworks from multiple domains of knowledge and practice to create something (e.g., business plan, musical composition, thesis, capstone paper, research project)
- Integrate diverse elements into a product, performance or artifact that fits its context coherently

Levels of Participation

Bowling Green University, <http://www.bgsu.edu/offices/provost/Assessment/Particip.htm>

“Participating” is a matter of active engagement, rather than passive observation, and is shown through working effectively in diverse groups and teams, as well as through cooperation and respect for others. Levels of Presentation

Bowling Green University, <http://www.bgsu.edu/offices/provost/Assessment/Present.htm>

“Presenting” requires fluency not only in English or another language, but often also in other symbol systems, such as logical, mathematical, visual, spatial, musical, electronic, or gestures and movements. Speaking quality for course presentations will be evaluated using the features defining the four levels shown below.

Level 1 Presenting (Beginner)

Level 2 Presenting (Novice)

- Vague purpose or multiple purposes
- Sense of audience wavers
- Evident but inconsistent development
- Does not advance an argument with adequate support

Levels of Investigation

Bowling Green University, <http://folios.bgsu.edu/assessment/Rubrics.htm>, downloaded March 21, 2002

“Investigate” calls attention to systematic processes of exploring issues, collecting and analyzing evidence, and making informed judgments. Investigation quality for course assignments will be evaluated using the features defining the four levels shown below.

Level 1 Investigation (Beginner)

- Questions and goal(s) of investigation not stated clearly or appropriately (e.g., may be too broad, superficial, specific, and/or at a structural level)
- Few, inappropriate, or irrelevant sources reviewed for background information

- Conclusions are based on the results of the analysis, as a logical extension of the findings, or demonstrating an understanding of theory as well as how to apply it to current project

Level 4 Investigation (Advanced)

All of the positive features of proficient investigation, plus:

- Questions and goal(s) of investigation are original, reflecting an in-depth knowledge of content area, and consider an issue(s) that previous investigations did not address
- Review of background information considers both confirmatory and disconfirmatory evidence of ideas, and refutes competing explanations of findings

- Analysis strategy has depth and may consider material from content areas outside of main focus of questions and goal(s) of project
- Convincing conclusions are drawn from current investigation and generalizations to related areas are proposed (demonstrates an understanding of theory as well as how to apply it beyond the current project)

University of South Carolina
General Education Assessment Criteria—Oral Communication
<http://ipr.sc.edu/effectiveness/assessment/criteria/oral.htm>

Goal

Students will communicate orally in a manner that unites theory, criticism, and practice to produce an effective communicator.

Objective A. Students' effective speaking will demonstrate knowledge of the subject. This criterion describes the accuracy, extensiveness, and perspective of the knowledge which the speaker exhibits. This criterion also assesses the degree to which the speaker's information meets the content requirements of a specific assignment. (NOTE: For speaking assessments, which are integrated with assessments in Critical Thinking or one or more Perspective Outcomes, those appropriate criteria whole or in part may be substituted for Speaking Criterion #1.)

4 OUTSTANDING

Appropriateness: The speaker fulfills or exceeds all of the assigned content requirements.

Accuracy: The speaker's knowledge of the subject is accurate throughout.

Extensiveness: The speaker exhibits convincing range and quality of knowledge, having done appropriate research, if applicable.

Perspective: The information presented reveals the speaker's assimilation and understanding of the material. When appropriate, the speaker is convincingly aware of alternative points of view AND of implications beyond the immediate subject.

3 EFFECTIVE

Appropriateness: The speaker fulfills the important content requirements of the assignment.

Accuracy: The speaker's knowledge of the subject is accurate throughout except in minor details.

Extensiveness: The speaker seems informed on the subject, having done appropriate research, if applicable.

Perspective: The information presented reveals the speaker's assimilation and understanding of view OR of implications beyond the immediate subject.

2 ADEQUATE

Accuracy: The speaker's knowledge of the subject is generally accurate, though flawed.

Extensiveness: The speaker exhibits limited range or quality of knowledge, having done minimal appropriate research, if applicable.

Perspective: The information presented reveals that the speaker has only partially assimilated or understood the material. When appropriate, the speaker shows some awareness of alternative points of view OR of implications beyond the immediate subject.

1 INEFFECTIVE

Appropriateness: The speaker fails to address the important content requirements of the assignment.

Accuracy: The speaker's knowledge of the subject is generally inaccurate.

Extensiveness: The speaker's knowledge of the subject lacks range or quality.

Perspective: The information presented reveals the speaker's failure to assimilate or to understand the material.

Objective B. Students' effective speaking will demonstrate an awareness of the audience/group. This criterion concerns the speaker's awareness of the audience. In demonstrating this awareness, the speaker must accommodate the listeners' attitudes toward or familiarity with the subject, as well as the listeners' comprehension levels. Depending on the characteristics of the audience, then, the speaker's development, language, and emphasis will vary and will reflect the degree to which the speaker has identified and is addressing those listeners.

4 OUTSTANDING

Development: The speaker's explanations and uses of evidence, illustrations, or other definitive details are highly appropriate for the listeners.

Language: The speaker's word choices clearly demonstrate an awareness of the listeners. The language seems deliberately chosen to aid the listeners' understanding of the subject (including definitions where appropriate).

Emphasis: The speaker's discussion or argumentation is consistently clear and appropriate to the listeners and to the purpose. In emphasizing important points, the speaker uses evidence logically and carefully.

Feedback-- Monitoring: The speaker monitors the audience's/group's responses and adapts the presentation accordingly.

3 EFFECTIVE

Development: The speaker's explanations and uses of evidence, illustrations, or other definitive details are highly appropriate for the listeners.

Language: The speaker's word choices demonstrate an awareness of the listeners. The language is consistent and seems generally appropriate to the listeners' understanding of the subject (including definitions where appropriate).

Emphasis: The speaker's discussion or argumentation is generally clear and appropriate to the listeners and to the purpose. In emphasizing important points, the speaker generally uses evidence logically and carefully.

Feedback-- Monitoring: The speaker monitors the audience's/group's responses and adapts the presentation accordingly.

2 ADEQUATE

Development: The speaker makes some attempt to provide evidence, illustrations, or other definitive details for the listeners, but some information is either extraneous or insufficient.

Language: The speaker's word choices indicate an awareness of the listeners, but the identity of the listeners is either unclear or inappropriate in some respects. Although the vocabulary seems fairly consistent, the language seems chosen more for the speaker's convenience than for the listeners' understanding.

Emphasis: The speaker's discussion or argumentation is generally clear or appropriate to the listeners and to the purpose, but may be lacking in some aspect of the use of logic or evidence.

Feedback-- Monitoring: The speaker's interaction with the audience/group is limited.

1 INEFFECTIVE

Development: The speaker generally lacks an awareness of the listeners, for the discussion lacks evidence, illustrations, or other definitive details.

Language: The speaker's word choices fail to reflect an awareness of the listeners, because either the vocabulary or the reference to the listeners is inconsistent or inappropriate.

Emphasis: The speaker's discussion or argumentation is generally unclear or inappropriate to the listeners and to the purpose. The presentation lacks emphasis, or is seriously defective in the use of logic or evidence.

Feedback-- Monitoring: The speaker fails to monitor the audience's/group's responses.

Objective C. Students' effective speaking will demonstrate organization appropriate to the purpose and to the interaction between speaker and audience. This criterion considers the structure and the coherence of the presentation. Structure refers to the way the speaker achieves unity by focusing and ordering the information. Coherence refers to the way the speaker connects the ideas to provide continuity from point to point and throughout the presentation. These aspects of organization should be appropriate to the audience and the purpose for speaking.

4 OUTSTANDING

Structure: The speaker focuses and orders the material to convey a unified point or effect.

Coherence: The speaker provides clear and consistent movement within and between major points and from beginning to end.

Introductory Comments: The speaker's opening comments attempt to reveal the purpose and major points of the presentation and motivate the audience to listen.

Concluding Comments: The speaker's concluding comments are strong both in reemphasizing the purpose and major points of the presentation and in leaving the audience with an appropriate closing statement.

3 EFFECTIVE

Structure: The speaker focuses and orders the material to convey a generally unified point or effect.

Coherence: The speaker provides movement within and between major points and from beginning to end.

Introductory Comments: The speaker's opening comments attempt to reveal the purpose and major points of the presentation and motivate the audience to listen.

Concluding Comments: The speaker's concluding comments are appropriately related to the purpose and major points of the presentation, but they are not very strong or emphatic.

2 ADEQUATE

Structure: The speaker provides some focus or order to the material, but this structure is somewhat unclear.

Coherence: The speaker provides movement within and between major points and from beginning to end, but this movement is at times either unclear or awkward.

Introductory Comments: The speaker's opening comments attempt to reveal the purpose and major points of the presentation and motivate the audience to listen, but in doing so the approach seems somewhat artificial, weak, or unimaginative.

Concluding Comments: The speaker's concluding comments are related to the purpose and major points of the presentation, but they either bring in extraneous information or are unnecessarily redundant.

1 INEFFECTIVE

Structure: The speaker provides little or no focus or order to the material.

Coherence: The speaker provides little movement within and between the major points and from beginning to end.

Introductory Comments: The speaker's opening comments are either inappropriate to the presentation, or they are unlikely to motivate the audience to listen.

Concluding Comments: The speaker closes the presentation either abruptly with no apparent concluding statement or with inappropriate remarks.

Objective D. Students' effective speaking will demonstrate vocal delivery which encourages listening. This criterion is concerned with those aspects of the speaker's delivery which either encourage or discourage listening: volume, pitch, enunciation, pronunciation pace, and tone of voice. These aspects of oral projection should be appropriate to the content, the occasion, the setting, and the purpose for which the comments are made. Empty vocalizations/verbal fillers (such as *you know," "uh," and," "uhm," etc.) affect the vocal delivery.

4 OUTSTANDING

Clear enunciation: Appropriate pronunciation, volume, pitch, inflection, and pace throughout. The speaker sounds genuinely interested in the topic. Delivery appears spontaneous throughout; notes may assist but do not interrupt or control delivery.

3 EFFECTIVE

Clear enunciation: Appropriate pronunciation, volume, pitch, inflection, and pace are generally maintained, but occasionally the speaker's voice is lacking somewhat in the appropriate enthusiasm or energy level. Delivery appears spontaneous throughout; notes may assist but do not interrupt or control delivery. A few empty vocalizations are noticeable but are not distracting.

2 ADEQUATE

Enunciation is hampered by occasional lazy articulation (such as slurring or run-together words); some inappropriateness of pronunciation, volume, pitch, inflection, or pace may be noticeable, but such instances do not seriously hinder the speaker's audibility. Delivery generally appears spontaneous, but some moments of apparent recitation, reading of notes, or reference to notes occasionally interrupt. Empty vocalizations are somewhat distracting.

1 INEFFECTIVE

Inappropriate or ineffective enunciation, pronunciation, volume, pitch, inflection, or pace seriously hinder the speaker's audibility or obstruct communication with the audience. Reading of or reference to notes, recitation, inappropriate display or lack of energy level, or empty vocalizations adversely affect the vocal delivery.

Objective E. Students' effective speaking will demonstrate physical presentation appropriate to the speaking situation. This criterion includes all aspects of what is commonly known as body language: facial expressions, eye contact, and body movement. Physical presentation helps reflect the speaker's poise and confidence.

4 OUTSTANDING

The speaker looks genuinely interested; facial expressions are consistently compatible with spoken content; physical presentation is appropriate and purposeful in enhancing the speakers comments; body movements and gestures are natural, appropriate, and relaxed; eye contact with the audience consistently maintained.

3 EFFECTIVE

The speaker appears interested; facial expressions are consistently compatible with spoken content. Body movements and gestures are usually natural, appropriate, and relaxed. Any nervous movements do not interfere with the presentation. Any lack of eye contact is only momentary.

2 ADEQUATE

The speakers facial expressions seem either limited or occasionally incompatible with the spoken content. Inappropriate body movements or gestures are occasionally noticeable but do not obstruct communication. For the most part, the speaker maintains eye contact with the audience, but the inconsistency in eye contact is somewhat distracting.

1 INEFFECTIVE

The speaker's facial expressions seem either limited or incompatible with the spoken content. Poor posture, distracting or inappropriate body movements or gestures, or lack of eye contact interferes with the delivery.

Objective F. Students' effective speaking will demonstrate appropriate structure and word choice. This criterion focuses on the speaker's ability to use standard English grammar and to control language to achieve verbal precision, economy, variety, and emphasis.

4 OUTSTANDING

The speaker chooses words and expressions for both maximum clarity and variety; the speaker manifests no grammatical errors; the speaker's sentence structure manifests stylistic strengths -- that is, the sentence structures distinctively create emphasis, dramatic impact, or more effective listening.

3 EFFECTIVE

The speaker's word choices and expressions achieve both clarity and at least some distinctiveness; the speaker manifests no grammatical errors.

2 ADEQUATE

The speaker's expressions are accurate and clear, but rarely distinctive. An occasional sentence structure or grammatical error is noticeable.

1 INEFFECTIVE

The speaker's expressions are, for the most part, accurate and clear but rarely distinctive. The speaker's meaning is often muddled or his/her credibility undercut by distracting faults in sentence structure or usage.

Objective G. Students' listening skills as audience or co-communicators in group discourse will promote accurate extraction of information and meaning.

4 OUTSTANDING

The student's evident active attention to oral communications of others encourages further communication; student recognizes responsibilities for listening and for gaining clarification of incomplete communication. The student demonstrates an accurate and thorough understanding of communication content through oral and written responses.

3 EFFECTIVE

The student's active attention to oral communications of others provides visual feedback to the other of respect and interest; the student's responses indicate understanding of information, opinions and ideas presented orally.

2 ADEQUATE

The student listens with physical and mental attention to oral presentation of others and demonstrates the understanding of the major points or threads of an argument through appropriate oral or written response.

1 INEFFECTIVE

The student's attention lacks focus and is reflected in written or oral responses where meanings and information are incomplete or inaccurately understood.

The text is clearly legible. The format is appropriate. The writer's misspellings are few in proportion to the length and complexity of the text.

2 ADEQUATE

The text is generally legible. The format is acceptable. The writer makes several misspellings in proportion to the length and complexity of the text.

1 INEFFECTIVE

The text is generally illegible. The format is unacceptable. The writers misspellings are frequent enough to be distracting, regardless of the length or complexity of the text.

Objective E. The student's writing will demonstrate the ability to use punctuation to establish and clarify meaning. This criterion considers the writer's use of punctuation marks as means of establishing, clarifying, and reinforcing the meaning of the sentences. All aspects of punctuation are included here, ranging from misuse and omission to more sophisticated uses which exhibit the writer's command of punctuation to convey meaning.

4 OUTSTANDING

The writer's punctuation is clear, appropriate, and purposeful. The writer consistently exhibits a command of punctuation, as indicated by the appropriate use of sophisticated or varied punctuation.

3 EFFECTIVE

The writer's punctuation is clear, appropriate, and purposeful. An occasional misuse or omission does not interfere with meaning.

2 ADEQUATE

The writer's punctuation is generally clear, appropriate, and purposeful, although misuses or omissions occasionally interfere with meaning.

1 INEFFECTIVE

The writer's misuses or omissions of punctuation frequently interfere with meaning.

Objective F. Students' writing will demonstrate the use of sentence structure to establish and clarify meaning. This criterion describes the writer's control of the elements of sentence construction to establish, clarify, and reinforce the meaning of the sentences.

Concerns here include the writer's use not only of appropriate conventions of grammar and usage (e.g., subject-verb agreement, pronoun-antecedent agreement, verb forms, etc.) but also of sentence patterns to establish relationships among ideas (e.g., coordination, subordination, parallelism).

4 OUTSTANDING

Syntax: The writer's use of clauses to establish sentence patterns consistently reinforces or emphasizes relationships among ideas.

Clarity: All parts of the sentence agree clearly and logically. The writer demonstrates a consistently good grasp of appropriate usage, grammar, and idiom. The sentences contain no misplaced words or phrases. The word order also seems deliberately and appropriately chosen for emphasis or for reinforcing the intended meaning.

Completeness: All sentences are grammatically complete.

3 EFFECTIVE

Syntax: For the most part, the writer's use of clauses to establish sentence pattern generally reinforces or emphasizes relationships among ideas.

Clarity: An isolated grammar or usage error does not obstruct clear and immediate understanding of the intended meaning. An isolated sentence contains a misplaced word or phrase, but such phrasing does not confuse the meaning.

Completeness: All sentences are grammatically complete.

2 ADEQUATE

Syntax: The writer's use of clauses to establish sentence patterns reflects relationships among idea, but connections might sometimes be inappropriate or weak.

Clarity: Grammar or usage errors may appear, but they do not seriously confuse the intended meaning. An occasional sentence contains a misplaced word or phrase, which confuses the meaning.

Completeness: Except for an isolated error, all sentences are grammatically complete.

1 INEFFECTIVE

Syntax: Few, if any, sentence patterns reflect appropriate relationships among ideas.

Clarity: Grammar or usage errors frequently confuse the intended meaning. More than an occasional sentence contain misplaced words or phrases which confuse the meaning.

Completeness: The writing exhibits more than an isolated failure to recognize the grammatical completeness of the sentence.

Objective G. Students' writing will demonstrate style, personal voice, and coherence as a communicator. Students' writing will demonstrate the writer's personal stance or voice as a communicator, which includes tone, point of view, attitude or personality. It also assesses the originality of the overall presentation, including the writer's ability to control the elements of writing to please, convince, or otherwise affect the reader.

4 OUTSTANDING

The writer's tone or general control of language consistently reflects a confident or authoritative central "voice" or "personality." Word choice is consistently precise, varied, economical or inventive. The writing clearly shows stylistic talent.

3 EFFECTIVE

The writer's tone or control of language generally reflects a confident or authoritative central "voice" or "personality." Word choice is generally precise, varied, economical, or inventive. The writing exhibits some success at style.

2 ADEQUATE

A central "voice" or "personality" is evident, though inconsistent in minor ways. Word choice is occasionally precise, varied, economical, or inventive. Stylistic awkwardness may be evident, but is not seriously distracting.

1 INEFFECTIVE

The writer's tone or general control of language is so lacking in consistency that little central "voice" or "personality" is evident. Word choice generally lacks precision, variety, economy, or inventiveness. Severe stylistic awkwardness is evident.

Objective H. Student's writing will reflect comprehension of other written texts and description, analysis, and synthesis of information and ideas appropriate to the assignment at any level.

4 OUTSTANDING

Identifies the subject very thoroughly; reflects highly developed observational skills; makes appropriate and reasonable inferences from the observations; sees relationships and relates to existing knowledge, skills or larger context.

3 EFFECTIVE

Identifies the subject well; reflects good observational skills; makes inferences which are, for the most part, reasonable and appropriate; sees relationships and relates to existing knowledge.

2 ADEQUATE

Identifies the subject clearly; shows reasonable observational skills; makes several reasonable inferences and relates to existing knowledge.

1 INEFFECTIVE

Identifies the subject somewhat; shows undeveloped observational skills; makes unreasonable or inappropriate inferences; sees most obvious relationship but does not relate to existing knowledge.

Rubrics for Assessing Information Competence in the California State University

ACRL Standard	Beginning	Proficient	Advanced
1. Determine the Extent of the Information Needed	Student is unable to effectively formulate a research question based on an information need.	Student can formulate a question that is focused and clear. Student identifies concepts related to the topic, and can find a sufficient number of information resources to meet the information need.	Question is focused, clear, and complete. Key concepts and terms are identified. Extensive information sources are identified in numerous potential formats.
2. Access the Information Effectively and Efficiently	Student is unfocused and unclear about search strategy. Time is not used effectively and efficiently. Information gathered lacks relevance, quality, and balance.	Student executes an appropriate search strategy within a reasonable amount of time. Student can solve problems by finding a variety of relevant information resources, and can evaluate search effectiveness.	Student is aware and able to analyze search results, and evaluate the appropriateness of variety of (or) multiple relevant sources of information that directly fulfill an information need for the particular discipline.
3. Evaluate Information and its Sources Critically	Student is unaware of criteria that might be used to judge information quality. Little effort is made to examine the information located	Student examines information using criteria such as authority, credibility, relevance, timeliness, and accuracy, and is able to make judgments about what to keep and what to discard.	Multiple and diverse sources and viewpoints of information are compared and evaluated according to specific criteria appropriate for the discipline. Student is able to match criteria to a specific information need, and can articulate how identified sources relate to the context of the discipline.
4. Use Information Effectively to Accomplish a Specific Purpose	Student is not aware of the information necessary to research a topic, and the types of data that would be useful in formulating a convincing argument. Information is incomplete and does not support the intended purpose.	Student uses appropriate information to solve a problem, answer a question, write a paper, or other purposes	Student is aware of the breadth and depth of research on a topic, and is able to reflect on search strategy, synthesize and integrate information from a variety of sources, draw appropriate conclusions, and is able to clearly communicate ideas to others
5. Understand the Economic, Legal, and Social Issues surrounding the Use of Information, and Access and Use Information Ethically and Legally	Student is unclear regarding proper citation format, and/or copies and paraphrases the information and ideas of others without giving credit to authors. Student does not know how to distinguish between information that is objective and biased, and does not know the role that free access to information plays in a democratic society.	Student gives credit for works used by quoting and listing references. Student is an ethical consumer and producer of information, and understands how free access to information, and free expression, contribute to a democratic society.	Student understands and recognizes the concept of intellectual property, can defend him/herself if challenged, and can properly incorporate the ideas/published works of others into their own work building upon them. Student can articulate the value of information to a free and democratic society, and can use specific criteria to discern objectivity/fact from bias/propaganda.
