

I. Philosophy

Shared governance, or collegial consultation, is a decision-making process committed to the best interests of our students and our institution based upon participation of those affected by decisions in an environment of cooperation and trust.

One of the basic principles of academic governance in higher education is that effective decisions derive from the powers vested in governing boards and colleges by law, the faculty, administration, staff and students. Because these sources of information are vital to the development and implementation of sound educational policy, Cañada College wishes to encourage to the greatest extent possible the practice of collegial consultation.

Collegial consultation recognizes and, indeed, is predicated on the sincere commitment on the part of all participants to our students, our professions and to our institution. It is a complex process of consultation that demands from faculty, administrators, classified staff and students, a respect for divergent opinions, a sense of mutual trust and a willingness to work together for the good of the instructional enterprise. Collegial consultation embraces the basic objective that all key parties of interest should be given the opportunity to participate in jointly developing recommendations and priorities for the well-being of the institution.

1. The College Council is advisory to the College President. The primary role of the College Council is to advise the College President on matters pertaining to budgeting, planning, program review, and governance issues.
2. The membership of the College Council is representative of the diversity of the College community as a whole and will strive to keep the needs of our students at the forefront during decision-making deliberations.
3. The College Council will maintain a clear relationship and communicate effectively with all campus groups.

If consensus cannot be reached, Roberts' Rules of Order will be followed in reaching a recommendation.

In the absence of a quorum, discussion may take place, but final action must be taken at a later meeting when a quorum is present.
