

1.35 Board Member Conduct

1. Board members shall:
 - a. Be bound by approved Board policies.
 - b. Work and communicate through appropriate channels of authority and responsibility.
 - c. Notify the President of the Board or the Secretary for the Board of an expected absence from a Board meeting.
 - d. Not use or permit others to use public resources, except that which is incidental and minimal, for personal purposes or any other purpose not authorized by law.
 - ~~e. Not use or permit others to use public resources, except that which is incidental and minimal, for personal purposes or any other purpose not authorized by law. (deleted inadvertently)~~
 - ~~e. Not communicate among themselves by the use of any form of communication (e.g., personal intermediaries, email, or other technological device) in order to reach a collective concurrence regarding any item that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board.~~
 - f. ~~A majority of the members of the Board shall not, use~~ Not communicate among themselves outside a regularly scheduled meeting, by using a series of communications of any kind, directly or through intermediaries, to discuss, deliberate, or take action on any item of business that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board. This policy shall not be construed as preventing an employee or official of the District from engaging in separate conversations or communications with members of the Board outside of a meeting in order to answer questions or provide information regarding a matter that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board, if that person does not communicate to members of the Board the comments or position of any other member or members of the Board.
2. As provided for in the law, written or oral background information supplied to Board members on matters to be discussed in closed session shall be kept confidential.
 - a. Board members shall not reveal the identity of individuals in attendance at closed sessions nor the nature or details of discussion at closed sessions.
 - b. Board members shall not initiate or entertain charges against individual employees at a public Board meeting. As provided by law, appropriate personnel matters shall be discussed by the Board in closed session.
3. Individual Board members shall not instruct staff to conduct investigations, prepare reports, or undertake extensive analysis of information. When information is requested by Board members, the following policy shall be observed:
 - a. It is the policy of the Board that there be no restraints placed upon District employees in providing routine public information except as restricted by statutes.
 - b. If the Board member request is for public information which exists in the form requested, it will be complied with as soon as possible.

- c. It shall be the policy of the Board that whenever an individual Board member wishes an investigation, study, research project, or analysis, it shall be directed by the majority vote of the Board through the Chancellor.
 - d. All Board member requests received will be referred to the Chancellor who will determine the appropriate disposition and may include, where indicated, the anticipated cost of completing the request, as well as an expected completion date.
4. A Board member shall not approach a District employee on personal or sensitive matters with the request that such matters be held in confidence.
 5. Data or reports prepared by individual Board members for distribution to the Board shall be the sole responsibility of the author and shall place no obligation on the part of the Chancellor or the Board to take action. Such materials should normally be distributed under "Statements from Board Members" on the regular Board meeting agenda.
 6. No member of the Board shall make, participate in making or, in any way, attempt to use his or her official position to influence a governmental decision in which he or she knows or has reason to know that he or she has a financial interest. Each Board member shall annually file a statement disclosing those interests in investments, real property, and income designated as reportable under the District's Conflict of Interest Code.
 7. Individual Board members shall inform the Chancellor of significant complaints and criticism received from the public even though no action is requested. In turn, the Board shall be kept informed of significant complaints and criticism by the Chancellor. The intent of this section is to assure that sensitive or controversial events do not become the subject of public comment before the Board and the administration have knowledge of the facts in the case.
 8. Board members shall maintain reasonable decorum at Board meetings.
 9. Board members, including the Student Trustee, shall participate in an annual Board evaluation process which will be conducted each calendar year. The purpose of this evaluation of the Board as a whole is to identify those areas of Board functioning which are working well and those which need improvement and to improve communication and understanding among Board members. Evaluation instruments with criteria based upon District Rules and Regulations shall be developed, and a facilitator shall be used by the Board as necessary to assist in this process.
 10. Refusal to adhere to these rules shall constitute misconduct by a Board member and shall be grounds for summary termination by the Board President of the offending Board member's privilege of address.
