Notice of Personal Chiropractor or Personal Acupuncturist

If your employer does not participate in a Medical Provider Network (MPN) you may be able to change your treating physician to your personal chiropractor or acupuncturist. Generally your employer, or Sedgwick CMS, Inc., has the right to select your treating physician within the first 30 days after your employer knows of your injury or illness. After your employer, or Sedgwick CMS, Inc., initiates treatment you may, upon request, have your treatment transferred to your personal chiropractor or acupuncturist. To be eligible you must notify your employer in writing prior to being injured.
